

The ideal candidate possesses a passion for writing and an innovative ability to create successful marketing campaigns and aid in creating company growth. You will be responsible for generating exciting and compelling stories on both digital and print sources of media.

Responsibilities

- Create new content to assist marketing campaigns
- Work closely with marketing team members
- Optimize content using SEO best practices

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Marketing or relevant work experience
- Experience in full life cycle project management
- Proficiency in major digital and print platforms
- Highest degree of English